Another day, get up and go. I try to say hello but I know that you dont know. I think of the things we used to do. Not a day goes by that I dont think of you. Waiting up late to see my face, or for that phone call to let you know Im safe. Dont worry about me or where Ill be. I hope the things I do will make you proud of me. You taught me almost all of the things Ive ever learned. Now times have changed and the tables have been turned. Ill take care of you, like you took care of me. You know Ill never forget my family. When I look at you, I think back to the past. I see my future and time is moving fast. Times have changed since you were young. I need to do this, Im not just having fun. You taught me almost all of the things Ive ever learned. Now times have changed and the tables have been turned. Ill take care of you, like you took care of me. You know Ill never forget my family. I hope you know that you can count on me. And no matter where I might be, I hope you have those memories.
