[Killah Priest] JesÃs, angels, Queen of Wands in the suits Tarots and carols, pull another out in Beirut Damn, hangman with daggers in his hand She told me switch my plans Dreams of ladder like that Israelite man The twisted, vengeance of the mystic under light fan The seven spirits of the Virgin emerging In my right hand, fly crawls up her eye She spoke a ghost, quotes, my head low, replied "Why?" She said, eat bread, you'll overcome I jumped out of the spiritual dumped Holding the ultra-gun, I triumph, my life slumped The Seven Cups around the lion So y'all niggas better beware this year Prepare for the uprising, this is my assignment Egos and black wishes, black Christmas A Santa with the hammer Elves loading clips in shells Thunder deer's bodies hanging from their antlers Call the ambulance cuz transplant thugs Cancerous drugs, I emerge, if I baited her Rings of fire around my words Abundance of curses and blesses from the virg Y'all blasphemous rap speakers Pulpits of bullshits, sever the life cord The acts of the Reaper, y'all hate nature Well, welcome to the urn of the cremator Courts adjourned, attend to the king later Stars aligning when I'm rhyming Welcome to Orion, and to my second assignment The murder angel wants you, black dogs want food Black fog mist in front of the moon Hogs grunt, gnaw, do you threw up ya lungs Lightheaded at the sight of ya windpipes Striated, your wife beheaded Your pets put in pots, cook 'em hot A Brooklyn plot, his face is a cushion for ox Been stabbed in the back more times Like an artist designing my tats White witches kisses, virgin lips I'm working with, blood vacuum thru the room I write this doom, priceless tomb above his head I once said I'll be the best, put time to test Enemies to rest, gouge out ya heart Eat it out my hand, you no fam Stonelands, chrome wings span It's the tyrant, if y'all truly knew Y'all would stay silent I turn violent, my last assignment
