And the sea is now no longer [Killah Priest] A band of horses pullin' his coffin Enormous, we followed, behind war, death thru dry bones Hallowed be thy name, it rained his pain God chariot of fire flowed above the walkin' Messiah Spread peace and love, holdin' crucifixes and lighters Outside wit the thieves and liars Murder and hell stood by Wavin' was the image of God The Virgin begins to cry Why mother, as she looks in the eyes of others She said: "It's not for him but my children who suffered" We got to the burial plot, the bottomless pit Where he was dropped along wit the apocalypse We watched from the top of the cliff Then the Lord said: "It was the sun" I unloaded my clip, this is done Chill son, the funeral, his wake, the eulogy, the gate Good night
