[Killah Priest] Six million barrels of Egyptian gold 24,000 kegs of the lost world's most precious stones Glue from a goo, from out the center of the moon And the dust from outta every dead king's tomb Bring me every convict from out of God's prison Make his DNA out of the star's system Let's make a small sharp incision Remove the waters; give 'em a heart full of wisdom I need 700,000 small planets Place 'em inside his womb, now he's standing Seven suns, below and above his tongue I breathe life, light up his veins Here he comes, they speakin' thunder in his ears Celestial spheres, he hears They made his penis into a phoenix He only sees in zenith A day wit Priest is a thousand years They made 'em chew and swallow 7000 new Cabbala's, his heart severed lions He runs like an impala We instilled in him, the wisdom of all the ancient scholars It rained lightning when he scream and holla 70 Nations came out the black waters They turned on the mic, let's call him off (Hook) He's the Perfect MC My flow might not be as illest as yours But my rhymes is the greatest in this galaxy Bitin' - The Perfect MC He's he Perfect MC My flow might not be as illest as yours But my rhymes is the greatest in this galaxy [Killah Priest] I attracted my light, again and again, over and over Within myself till I created some help Position them around the Orion's Belt Now I will make other suns My book of rhymes weigh seven tons I eat planets like its medicine They con rappers wit record contracts to pay Con Edison A Caesar called Rabbi Yeshua Ben Priest A doctor called 'The Healer' walk from the East I bolt the lightning as my mic I rap, I blow planets away I inhale, they come together My fingers hold the Big Dipper in the Little Dipper like dice Look at my face like Poltergeist Explosives when I write, they say Priest erupts Planes crash, the street's go nuts When I hear a beat and some cuts I beat it up Like Godzilla, I'ma hard nigga Wit Astrophysics, I have no limits I can see it all in the tarot pictures Spit lyrics (Hook)
