(Hook) 4x So what u want huh? So what they want huh?
[Killah Priest] The bullet or the bribe, cartels bomb shells Cocktails with wine, poison choices under the sky
Fireworks, dye in the dirt, crime experts Nine in his shirt, street line the work God design, stars burst My mind twine with the universe Thru this verse get reclined
Bone analysts await the baggages Quicker Judges who await the packages Gats to rib, all under cameras Here come the savages Master this, in one place till I finish the line (Hook) 2x [Killah Priest]
Organized crime are murdering cops Shark attorney eat kids swerving on blocks Burial plots, machine gun shots Supreme got knocked Or the psychic of the righteous
What draws me to write this? Is it the universe hands or what the planets demand? Or is the essence that brings a hundred Gods on my presence to stand? What makes me write this record? What makes him give this message? (I don't know) Is it just us or justice when this mic blow amps (Hook) 4x [Killah Priest]
Two trillion demons that I trapped in my ring Flow thru my chips like people walking thru Beijing Praise the king, Polonius dream Body building with lyrics Rap increase till I'm labeled supreme I gave y'all eternal life Day turns to night From the grave I returned to the mic To the page I turn on to write No amen, y'all pagans are playing With the one man nation You infidels, gnashing of teeth Smell the heat as I send you to hell beneath Dethrone who? The child disowns you
(Hook) 4x
