Intro: Yeah, Bring It On Let me see what you've got Bring it to them now, it's on!

Rap1: After years and years, a new job, the day'll be talking my ears are tired, not the bullshit begin to walking The stop signs that be on the road to paradise, make a man wanna stop and think about his life twice, there's many ways of getting payed in the world today, but remember, you're not wanna be gone 'til november Forget the new jack, and the new stax smack, learn a lesson homie, and bring the old school back You see, the people of the day, be keepin' their faith, hangin on 'cause they know a new done, brings a new day And when the sun shines bright all the clouds are gone, you can believe in the boogie, 'cause the boogie is on

Chorus: (Bring it on, bring it on) One life of livin', people movin' on, bring it on (aha) (Bring it on, bring it on) One life of livin', people movin' on, on and on (check one two)

Rap2: Now remember back when, when it all was good, not a whole lotta fight, just funk in the hood, think about those days, somethin' trip, dream about in your own age, or with a brake, pump it out and leave your cold cage, and be the jam when you stand up on the stage Whatta time that will be fo' what's on the halv instead of crimewe can all be together and laugh, aha!

Chorus x 1

Bring it on, people movin' on, movin' on (aha) Bring it on, people movin' on, movin' on

Rap3: Now the purple doves cry, it's raining now, but don't ask why 'cause it will stop, ask me how I know, please understand This is the touch that make a pray of an old man he told me this so now I just can't believe when the beams start to shine and all the trips have to leave on the done of the eve A brand new day, step outta way while I'll say...

Chorus x 1
