The way I see may make you blind
The way I think may scar your mind
And evil are the words I speak
I am sin and sin you seek Begging...
Thirsting...
Feeding...
...My hunger never at ease
Seduced deceive
Go hand in hand
In my eyes they're the same
And you always knew
And you still beg
For the serpent's kiss
Do you dare to taste my soul
Do you dare among the serpent's roll
And to wed their eyes and lick their tongues
I am them and your flesh is young
Crawling close
I'm the one you fear
But when I'm gone
You wish me near
Seduced deceive
Go hand in hand
In my eyes they're the same
And you always knew
And you still beg
For the serpent's kiss
You tasted me
I tasted you
Your naked flesh
Your life undo
Seduced deceive
Go hand in hand
In my eyes they're the same
And you always knew
And you still beg
For the serpent's kiss
