Creeping out of the darkness
I've never felt like this before
Felling something I can't explain
Like no other time before
It's taken over control of me
Sends me spinning in my mind
One and one makes three
Have I crossed over that line

On the edge of insanity
Something's starting to unwind
In the name of humanity
Take a closer look inside

All that we dream
All that we feel
Makes this all so real
All that has been
All that we've seen
A never ending wheel
It goes on and on and on

All alone all by myself
In this room now full of fears
Something's calling out haunting me
It's all starting to come clear
Motionless I cannot run
Magnetizing draws me near
Hypnotizing in slow motion
Is this reality right here

On the edge of insanity
Something's starting to unwind
In the name of humanity
Take a closer look inside

All that we dream
