(Jesse and Ella Hooper)

If only we could stand the pain
Casualties of another day
In the case were all the same
There's no pain to feel this stark frame

Needle points over lies
Make a happy man and why
As the dust of time goes by You're so boring you forget to try

Everything concentric little sign no meaning to me anymore
I close the door
.. 'Cause it's unfair and it's unkind
..And it's unfair we are lost in line
..Again ..Again

Disappointment's hear to stay
Just keep waiting for the day
But all the riddles will unravel right before your very eyes
As you fly away
