Well she wants to take it far
And she tries
Tries and tries so hard
I see her with her new shoes and make-up on
She'll have to make it up, make it up, make it up

She'll make it up
She'll make it up

Now I see her standing in that line,
And it's not quite the perfect crime
Cause she's got a flawless face, you know
But there's that
Empty space the empty space empty space

You'll go between her ears
Between her ears
But she still hears

And she doesn't even know a thing
And she'll steal
That pretty ring, pretty ring, pretty ring
From off your hand
From off your hand

And she'll stand in line
She'll waste her time
She's willing to for you
