Yo doctor (hooohooohoo), hop out the cadillac
I'm so focused, smoke help my cataracs Mind on my money, no money on my mind
And I'm looking for Me'shell, and a honey on the grind Love is packed, I got my honey on the line
So I close my phone, honey know me when I'm lyin' Cos I be tryin' to get my drink on Find two freaks tell 'em drink cos Keith home Murray, block to block we playin' dirty
My ? handle good, I shut the game early (ya head me)
Take two women to the telly
Let the animal out, ring 'em like Barnham Baily (elephant)
You can't smell me then I'm guerilla
And I ain't goin' nowhere like Puff and Ben Stiller
It's killer, keep a (uh) on the waistline Me'shell, drop it when I yell (baseline!)

[Me'shell] (Tweet)

Yeah, she like to have money in her pocketbook, uh (that's alright), and that's alright Got a lot of sense running through ya bones (that's alright), and that's alright

[Me'shell] (Tweet)

Your mama gotta be fine, you probably breastfed cos you look real healthy With your tinted pretty eyes, put on ? bon sit With that swerve in ya hip, order, can I get a drink, uh uh, yes you can Pull the bar from ya purse, tip start singing my shit with the chorus first (ooh, yeah)

[Me'shell] (Tweet)

She like to have money in her pocketbook (that's alright), that's alright (that's alright) Got a lot of sense running through ya bones, uh (that's alright) and that's alright

[Me'shell] (Tweet)

I like to hang out, shake that thang, ah ah, uh baby, that's alright (ohh)
I like to hang out, shake that thang, ah yeah (that's alright), that's alright

[Me'shell]

Baby girl got her own thing, she know everybody
High class, mediocre, riff-raff Love is the root politic Read between the paragraph she know what she make after tax
She like to get free, she been to Cuba, she don't watch TV
She only get greedy for the power of the P, uh, and me
Yeah

[Me'shell]

She like to have money in her pocketbook, that's alright Got a lot of sense running through ya bones, that's alright
Like to be in the know where all the major figures at, that's alright
Like to hang out, shake that thang, uh, that's alright

[Redman] (Me'shell)

Yo, talk to me, yo, walk with me, yo, bounce with me (that's alright, lookie here, uh, lookie here) Introducing-zing-zing-zing, the illest-illest motherfucker you ever heard in your life

[Me'shell] (Redman)

Lookie here, come on, yeah, lookie here (you nasty), uh, uh
