"The Embrace"

Visit "The Embrace" on MotoLyrics.com

the fire cast its shadow tongues caught in the night never to be captured never to see the light rejected all salvation a thorn in every hand dark is the devotion pearls lost in the sand how i wish i knew it then feel evil crawl in embracing me again

you know i'm all but sorry your cold caress can't heal me this hurt is mine alone a cancer growing in my bones would you face the struggle ? see it just as i ?

or forever close your eyes and let the stormclouds pass on by a slave to my desire crimson honey on my lips order of the process dead red passion trip i don't have the answer and you don't need to know sundown over the wastelands echoes from below

and now it has been done
