"Break The Silence"

As I live and breathe
I'm watching, watching a world die
We greet this with apathy
No longer

Consumed myself
We'll walk through each day
With no mind for captivation
Immoral Decay

We must destroy and rebuild
We must destroy and rebuild
For the sake of ours
It starts with one
With one

As I live and breathe
I watching, watching a world die
It greets us with apathy
With empathy
No longer

If we can't break the silence
[How can we survive?]
Search inside yourself
[Now that you're alive.]
We must break the silence
Now that we're alive.
Silent: No longer.

With this world, that knows us
The fate is in our hands
The battle has just begun
We are not defeated

If we can't break the silence
[How can we survive?]
Search inside yourself
[Now that you're alive.]
We must break the silence
Now that we're alive.

Silent: No longer.

With all that I am
I will use my voice
To set this Revolution

It starts today
And It starts with me
Silent: No longer

With all I am
I will let my voice...
With all I am..

It starts with me.

Break the silence
[break the silence]
Break the Silence
We are alive.

Break the silence
[break the silence]
Break the Silence
We are alive.
