It's all a nothing, been dead for long
For far too long the illusion falters
This illusion falters
Suffering
Despite the struggle
Remaining helpless
My heart can no longer (my heart can no longer)
No longer be frozen (no longer)

Take my words, This truth
I will never
Never blame you

It must be now, we must revolt
Invoke the strength, turn the tide, stop it now

Take my words, This truth
I will never
Never blame you

The winds of change will cleanse away
What still remains
Let our doubts and indecision pass away

Take my words (take my words)
This truth
I will never
Never blame you

My Life
For Yours

Free me (my)
Again (life)
My life (for)
for yours (for yours)
