And it begins a new
The hatred of mankind
As it seeks to kill
That which lives inside

Now we are dying
Dying the slowest death
Held down by bonds that bind us
We breathe our final breath

And it begins a new
The burning we endure
As we seek the strength
Strength to break the bonds

Now we are dying
(Dying)
Dying the slowest death
No more condemnation
We fight for our last breath

Breathe life for you are not alone
Breathe life inside your heart of stone

From dust you were born
And to the ashes you return
From dust you were born
And to the ashes you return, you

Break the bonds
Break the bonds

Breathe life for you are not alone
Breathe life inside your heart of stone

(Break the bonds)
Breathe life for you are not alone
(Break the, break the bonds)
Breathe life inside your heart of stone
