"In Due Time"

Pacing aimlessly, when my mind is unrest!
Unsure of what may come!
What have I done to, bring this down on me?
Helpless to make this undone!

All in due time
See the world through different eyes
All in due time
Shadows will give way to light

How much more can I give of myself?
As these walls, close in on me
As I slip down into this despair! (to this despair!)
There is nothing to attain!

What victory? (what victory?)
When my soul is weak! (Is weak!)
When does my help comes from?

All in due time
See the world through different eyes! (I see the world through different eyes!)
All in due time
Shadows will give way, give way to light!

All that we suffer through
Leads to determination
The trails we all go through
Gives us the strength to carry on!
Something within us burns
Desire feeds the will to live

A reason to believe!
I will see redemption!
Yeah!

All in due time
See the world through different eyes! (I see the world through different eyes!)
All in due time
Shadows will give way, give way to light!

Only due time!
Yeah!
