"Of Purest Fire"

Visit "Of Purest Fire" on MotoLyrics.com

From the hand of Evil I was sent
Destroying that where Jesus went
In the name of Satan I command
Kill the priest and steal his land

Onwards they arise
Where life can be unmade
I am Of Purest Fire
Burning all what should be burned

I found the portrait of Christ
Reigning in the minds of the iced
Son of the God of Cancer
Never will he give you an answer

I create a Demonstorm
My will shall be in demonform
I evoke my Demondreams
Demonic so it seems

Join me, I am stronger
For all what is
Shall be no longer
