"Victorious Dawn Rising"

Visit "Victorious Dawn Rising" on MotoLyrics.com

This void born long ago is cold and silent
Five rings of decadence strikes deep and deadly Bodies covered up with thick melting liquid
Blizzards reign supreme in this world and beyond

Hail the order, never weak nor speechless
Hail the order, one and one with power

Surrounded by rapture, harvest with the king of pain
The elite will always purify as blood runs deep then slip away
From the wooden innocent cradle to the metallic sinful coffin
(We are) doomed to walk this earth among the feeble mass of lies

Victorious dawn rising - Into a starless orbit Victorious dawn rising - Forever it shall be
