Wes King/Kim Hill

It'll be the last time this time

I'll never do it again

It'll be the last time I swear

Then why am I crying again

Chorus

'Cause I'm headed for a broken heart

Headed for a broken heart

I can't slow down

Yes I'm headed for a broken heart

Headed for a broken heart

Can't turn around

Can't slow down

Oh I'm headed for a broken heart

Thought I learned my lesson last time

But obviously I was wrong

Just like my daddy He knows

It's gonna take more crying to be strong

Chorus

I could cry all night over what I've done

I'm just glad I'm His to teach

I'll be happy when I wake up

I know that He's nearer to me

He's nearer to me

'Cause He's nearer to a broken heart

Closer to a broken heart

He won't let me down

Yea He's nearer to a broken heart

Closer to a broken heart

Just turn around

Don't slow down

Oh He's nearer to a broken heart

Closer to a broken heart
