"Committed To The Call"

I hear his voice and I'm convicted
To rise above the status quo
He's asking me to live and listen
And to let His will move my soul

His Holy spirit beckons
I can't help but answer

I am committed to the call
I vow to walk in blind faith
Willing to sacrifice it all
To reflect amazing grace
I am committed to the call

I will revel in the Son's light
And let His love come shining through
I will seek life from the true vine
And bear the fruit of Holy truth

I'm drawn by words of wisdom
Whispering my name
