MORE LIKE YOU

Kim Hill and Jamie Kenney

Your love overwhelms me
Your peace is beyond compare
Your mercy waits to surround me
If I dare
So I kneel before You, Father
In the shadow of Your might
And I pray that You will hear this cry
And heal my heart tonight

Im longing for You, Lord
I need You to fill me more and more
Im desperate for You, Jesus
Whatever You have to do
Make me more like You
Ive known You in sorrow
Ive seen you through my tears
I feel the warmth of your touch
When you're near
May the scars I bear be sacred?
And this brokenness be real
May the wounds so deep inside my heart
Reflect you as they heal

Strengthen me
According to your promise
Renew me
With the fragrance of your word
Hold me up, if the water overtakes me
That I may give you praise
