Livin' by myself,
the walls are getting whiter and my clothes are getting tighter each day
Livin' all alone,
my meals are more meager, I'm a kitty with a fishbone.
I'm overwhelmed and underweight. I've gotta stop and think.
Where can I go now? Where can I go now?

Go back to the very first day of your life; do it right.

Feelin' all alone, my innocence was stolen,
I'm a prisoner in my own bones.
I thought I'd have an easy life,
just like all my friends.
Where can I go now?
I've lost control now.

Go back to the very first day of your life; do it right.

I say no to everybody just to have control.
Where can I go now? Where can I go now?

Go back to the very first day of your life; do it right.
