Wait for the sun to set your time
Wait till your tide rolls out to sea
Take a deep breath, whisper my name
I'll look up just in time to see
Then the stars can follow me

10,000 miles to take me home
I don't belong out here alone at sea
10,000 miles ain't that far
When it's over and done
There's nothing but you and me

Take all your blessings and your prayers
Lay down your blanket on the beach
Just watch the waves crash on the shore
And feel the water at your feet
And know that somewhere I am home
I feel you from the ocean deep

10,000 miles to take me home
I don't belong out here alone at sea
10,000 miles ain't that far
When it's over and done
There's nothing but you and me

If from the farthest sun, I'll carry on
Just for the moment I can feel
The beauty of the beating of your heart
Every time it beats for me

10,000 miles to take me home
I don't belong out here alone at sea
10,000 miles ain't that far
When it's over and done
There's nothing but you and me

10,000 miles to take me home
I don't belong out here alone at sea
10,000 miles ain't that far
It's over and done
There's nothing but you and me
