Jane, my heart is on the line
You've grow too fast
I lost the time
Jane, you're counting out your age
I read the signs like a mental sign Jane, impossible to spell your name Jane, the far away wind to touch
And disappear in to love Jane, I'm talking in your sleep
you'll never know
I told you so, Jane,
I never really
could be near (you) Oh, baby Jane, is it a passion or a play or just a name?
Nothing's impossible today
Lost in paradise I can't solve survive
Only half of life, Jane, the far away wind to touch and disappear in to love

Jane, I'm talking in your sleep
you'll never know
I told you so, Jane,
I never really
could be near you Oh, baby Jane, is it a
passion or a play or
just a name?
Nothing's impossible today
Lost in paradise I can't solve survive
Only half of love
Jane, my heart is on the line
Another day, another time Jane, my prayers are only words in black and white from left to right, Jane, I never really could be near you .
Wo, oh, Jane, I guess you'll never, know my name
Jane... Oh, Oh Jane...
