falling down into the secrets the secrets in my mind leaving all my life behind me absolution hard to find memories dawn in pale forgiveness i know i was unkind can you please forgive me never enough, i fall apart sawing feelings in my own cage my soul is crying loud longing for some rest in my brain no more turning inside out

memories dawn in pale forgiveness
my time to feel is gone
can you please forget me never again, i'm lost on

heaven's ground - lost between those feelings i have never found
sometimes i look in the mirror the mirror of myself is it just a waste? or something something i should build memories dawn in pale forgiveness

heaven's ground - lost between those feelings have

i am lost in myself - on heaven's ground i am lost in myself - my soul cry's loud
