You made me feel like I belong
Cause you held me like a gun.
You were shelter from the storm
I could swear you were the one

I thought were my angel
Your smile could melt my heart
I thought that passing strangers,
Could never fall apart

You still love you day and day out
Watching us fading out
And I felt like loosing my way
You still love you till I burn down
I thought we could work it out...
Now there's one thing left to say...

Go, Go, Go,
Now there's one thing left to say...
Go, Go, Go,
Dry your eyes and walk away...

Never knew love could be such fun
But you know how people change
Thought that our hearts would beat as one
Never turned cold and estrange

Now we play games till silence
Your voice is like a star
They say no mans an island
I think that's what you are

You still love you day and day out
Watching us fading out
And I felt like loosing my way
You still love you till I burn down
I thought we could work it out...
Now there's one thing left to say...

You still love you day and day out
Watching us fading out
And I felt like loosing my way

You still love you till I burn down
I thought we could work it out...
Now there's one thing left to say...

(Go, go, go...)
You still love you day and day out
Watching us fading out
And I felt like loosing my way
(Go, go, go...)
You still love you till I burn down
Baby I'm burning out...
Now there's one thing left to say...

Go, Go, Go,
Now there's one thing left to say...
Go, Go, Go,
Dry your eyes and walk away...
