"Lager And Ale"

late weekend night and I'm at the Bojar Grill I got decisions to be made between lager and ale When through the kitchen door come the dancing girl then everything on the menu mattered

(course)
oh the thoughts in my head oh if she knew
I hope she'll nod at this drunken bar slob

'cause I'm ready, willing and able yes I'm ready, willing and able over to the jukebox I staggered for a love song to scatter my body before her didn't have change and I lost my damn brains so I started humming "In-A-Gadda-Da-Vida" I'll pay the bar tab and even the cab off to the hotel we'll wallow

oh if she knew
I hope she'll nod at this drunken bar slob

'cause I'm ready, willing and able yes I'm ready, willing and able (x5)
