It seems much later but the clock strikes nine
Been good before but now I'm guilty this time
The call I'm waiting for won't come to me
I see your face and I can feel relief
Relax now baby I won't leave you tonight
I'll keep pretending everything's all right

CHORUS

Hey Hey, The Cheating Game
Such a shame, The Cheating Game
I'm a girl that cannot be tamed
But I'll keep blaming it all on The Cheating Game

Don't feel bad babe cuz it's not your fault

You need a scapegoat blame my cheatin' heart
Is it so wrong that I have this much fun
Is it a crime you're not my only one
Sometimes I wonder how you've been so blind
So now it's time that I leave you behind

REPEAT CHORUS

Bridge:

Can't escape it's so hard and I hate it
Why does love got to be so complicated?
Every time I turn around I just can't make up my mind

SOLO
