What a dirty little town I was walking around,
couldn't get you off my mind, there's a chance that someday somehow someway,
I will escape the place and time

And maybe someday I will finally see that all your love does is it poisons me, keeps me awake when I would rather sleep, now I'm exhausted let go of me.....

Baby, I've fallen again,
I've got a broken heart that's aching to mend,
and I think to myself could this be the end, and why's it gotta be so hard
Baby, I've fallen again,
My soul just can't let go and I can't pretend, and I finally know that this is the end,
and it's tearing me apart

So I thought I'd call you up just to hear your voice
I heard her talking in the background noise, and I let you hear me cry, but this will be the last time Although it hurts I'll say goodbye

And running in circles doesn't get me too far, you break down my walls then you will see my scars,
I should have known and never let down my guard,
I was so stupid, never fell so hard

REPEAT CHORUS

I remember - I gave up so much for you I remember
The seconds are flyin'
It almost feels like I'm dyin'
Stop denyin' you're lyin'
I can't quit all my cryin' yeah

Baby I'm fallin' again
I've got a broken heart that's aching to mend,
and I think to myself could this be the end,

why's it gotta be so hard?
