If its real, I would appreciate the situation near my lips
If i feel this sunny rain above our heads
I show that, it cant be so sad again

If its dead i d only appreciate to
Have your number, a card or a kiss
If and i regret the conversation
Was late and you really wanted to sleep
I understand but to understand is not enough

If you love me, you got a lot of nerve cos

World is a dance for nobody

These days are gone
A fine moment between us, I realize
Everything, im wondering, whos next

If its dead id only appreciate to
Have your number, a card or a kiss
If and i regret the conversation
Was late and you really wanted to sleep
I understand but to understand is not enough
