There's a place I know too well
I've been there and left to tell
I can see that you and me are almost half way there

We're gettin' much too close
Feels like I've seen a ghost
Took a vow, if I made it out you'd never catch me there again

No time to wonder why
No time for long goodbyes
Last chance for gettin' out
Is fading with the light

'Cause I don't want to be around
When the night comes down
On the lonesome side of town

You can hear each footstep fall
Run from shadows on the wall
Every day is just the same as one that came before

You won't find any peace
Not here, not on these streets
Misery loves company and there's enough to go around

No time to wonder why
No time for long goodbyes
Last chance for gettin' out
Is fading with the light

'Cause I don't want to be around
When the night comes down
On the lonesome side of town
On the lonesome side of town
