I left you with nothing but a few tears in my eyes
Now I'm halfway down the Interstate past Highway 99 It's just me and one good wiper blade up against the rain

CHORUS 1:

And I still hear the echoes of those bitter words we said
And I could drive a million miles and never drive them
from my head
Those words we said

Every sad song on my radio sounds like it's custom made

No matter how I try I can't get far enough away
By some devil on my shoulder that keeps whisperin' in my ear

CHORUS 2:

And I still hear the echoes of those bitter words we said

And I could drive a million miles and never drive them
from my head

And keep me driving

Those words that wounded like an arrow to the heart

Driving

(repeat chorus 1)

Those words we said

We said...
