I will be there when you call
I will be there

It's so sad when lovers part
They walk away and break their hearts
Yes, I've had my share of tears
I walked away but now I'm here
'Cause now that I can see
All the things that you're doing to me

I can't say goodbye
In the night I will be there, I will always stay around
In the day, I will be there when you call
(I will be there when you call)
When you call
(I will be there if you ever need me, baby)

I want you to understand
I need you now, I needed you then
Stupid things got in our way
But now I'm coming home to stay
'Cause now that I can see
All the things that you're doing to me

I can't say goodbye
In the night I will be there, I will always stay around
In the day, I will be there when you call

Never gonna leave you
Now I'm gonna stay forever
'Cause you know I need you
Never gonna leave you
Now I'm gonna stay forever

I can't say goodbye
And you know I tried to walk away
But the feeling deep inside of my soul told me to stay
I can't say goodbye

I can't say goodbye
In the night I will be there, I will always stay around
In the day, I will be there if you call

'Cause I can't say goodbye

Never gonna leave you
Now I'm gonna stay forever
'Cause you know I need you
(I will always stay around)
Never gonna leave you
Now I'm gonna stay forever
[Incomprehensible]

Never gonna leave you
Now I'm gonna stay forever
'Cause you know I need you
Never gonna leave you

Never gonna leave you
'Cause you know I need you
Never gonna leave you
