This road we've already travelled far
And we carry every scar
But we've still got a long way to go
There may have been times we lost our way
But I'm here with you today
And that's all you need to know

And now as the pages turn
The lessons that we had to learn
Make us stronger, now we're flying once again

Because
Love
Love conquers all
The rise after the fall
It never lets you down
Love
Love conquers all
Breaking down the walls
Can turn your world around

In this world it's not easy to believe
Won't you keep your faith in me
Hold on tight and don't let go
And this battle we shall overcome
We'll keep fighting til we've won
Love is stronger than we know

And now as the pages turn
The lessons that we had to learn
Make us stronger, now we're flying once again

Because...

Love is a victory, and you can't fight it
Together we can win if we're united
Let love forever reign, surrender to your heart

Because...
