I'm waking up alone again
Skies are turning grey
Morning paper, lemon tea
Just another day

Hear me please
Emptiness,
Won't you go away

I'm trying so hard to survive the rain
I'm constantly fighting my fears
My tears
In vain
Ooh...

I'm running low on energy
Running out of hope
Losing you was losing me
Don't know how to cope

Hear me please
Loneliness
Keep the pain away

I'm trying so hard to survive the rain
I'm constantly fighting my fears
My tears
In vain

I'm falling
Deeper and deeper
I'm losing
And I'm crying your name
But you don't seem to hear me

I'm trying so hard to survive the rain
I'm constantly fighting my fears
My tears
In vain
