Never even thought to cry, when I heard you say goodbye
Never said where you were going
There's no laughter in the air, only silence everywhere
And so much left unspoken
Since you've been gone, I haven't been the same
I wish that I could see who's to blame

Without you, where do I belong?
Without you, how can I go on?
And no love does what yours will ever do
Tell me how am I supposed to live my life without you?

Ooh, was I lost in you and me, to the point I couldn't see
That what we had was dying
Now it's all that I can do, to see photographs of you
And stop myself from crying
I should learn to live without your love
Got so many memories but it's not enough

Without you, where do I belong?
Without you, how can I go on?
And no love does what yours will ever do
Tell me how am I supposed to live my life without you?

I feel helpless and, oh, so alone
Like I never felt before, you made me feel alive
But I don't remember what it's like anymore, oh

Without you, where do I belong?
Without you, how can I go on?
And no love does what yours will ever do
Tell me how am I supposed to live my life without you?

Without you, where do I belong?
Without you, how can I go on?
Tell me how am I supposed to live my life without you?

Oh baby, where do I belong without you?
Please tell me how can I go on without you?
