I never knew I could fly
But something is taking me higher than ever
Like something inside
Is lifting me up until I'm touching heaven

No matter what the world may bring
It all comes down to one thing

Have you ever been in love?
Have you ever noticed how the sky
Never seems so blue
The whole world's in time with you
Have you ever known that someone
Is gonna be the one
No matter what you do, the sun still shines on you,
Like an angel from above,
Have you ever been in love?

When he takes me hand,
I'm carried away with the force of a river
When there are mountains ahead
They're easy to face if we climb together

Whatever dreams the night may bring,
It all comes down to one thing

Have you ever been in love?
Have you ever noticed how the sky
Never seems so blue
The whole world's in time with you
Have you ever known that someone
Is gonna be the one
No matter what you do, the sun still shines on you,
Like an angel from above,
Have you ever been in love?

No matter what you do

(Yeah)

Have you ever been in love?

Have you ever noticed how the sky
Never seems so blue
The whole world's in time with you
Have you ever known that someone
Is gonna be the one
No matter what you do, the sun still shines on you,

Have you ever been in love?
Have you ever noticed how the sky
Always seems so blue
The whole world's in time with you
Have you ever known that someone
Is gonna be the one
No matter what you do, the sun still shines on you,
Like an angel from above,
Have you ever been in love?

Have you ever been in love?
