It's over now oh good i lost you some how i knew i would you left me all alone, you left me with hope (now) i'm on my own

and i can't help the way i feel today i know that you'll never feel the same you will never change so i walk away this time this time i know
i'm taking back my life

i tried as hard as i could i never gave up when i knew i shoul i cried at night i cry all the time (now)

you will never change so i walked away this time
this time i know
