now you say that you're leaving to see the world and swim the seven seas i won't cry, no, no
nor shed a tear, nor wish you were here

the sun always shines on carolina the sun always shines down on tupelo i keep my eyes on the bird and the honey bee and my mind won't go running back won't go running back to you and if i find you on a good day skies are blue, no-one to bother you steadfast and starward on the mountain side with a river to run and a dog named lutiano so say that you're leaving

to see the world and swim the seven seas
i won't cry, no, no

'cos the sun always shines on carolina
the sun always shines down on tupelo
won't go running back

and if thats what you want pack up your bags
don't write a note walk to the door turn round one last time turn off the lights take one step to left and another to the right and walk away

walk away
walk away.
