Meet me at midnight down by the tree where the night
bird sings

Meet me at midnight down by the tree where the night
bird sings

There's a sea of stars ticking by above the trees

There's a hollow log shining in the moon

See the hollow log shining in the moon

Little dog laughed and the dish ran away with the spoon

I wrestle with the angels and dance with the devils in my head

Wrestle with the angels and i dance with the devils in my head

And the ghosts come knockin' when i lie dreaming in my bed

I need a bedtime story 'bout all the kings horses and all the kings men

I need a bedtime story 'bout all the kings horses and all
the kings men

I feel so broken could you put me together again

Elevator man picked me up on the thirteenth floor

Elevator man picked me up on the thirteenth floor

Said come on up there's always room for one more

Meet me at midnight down by the tree where the night
bird sings

Meet me at midnight down by the tree where the night
bird sings

There's a sea of stars ticking by above the trees
