When the wind blows me back And this world has hurt my feelings Just a little light is all i'm needing But you send me the sun. You send me the sun Send me the sun wrapped in a rainbow And i'll wash my face in this rain And brave this tornado Hey, hey, you're the only one Who could send me the sun Send me the sun When my world has pinned me down So i can't see through the clouds Darkness falling all around But you send me the sun Send me the sun Heaven knows this heart of mine Is only waiting for a sign I've got my face turned to the sky So come on brighten everything Come on shine your light on me

Send me the sun wrapped in a rainbow And i'll wash my face in this rain And brave this tornado Hey, hey, you're the only one Who could send me the sun Send me the sun
