

Kimemie Rhodes

"The Corner Of The Bar"

Visit "The Corner Of The Bar" on MotoLyrics.com

From the corner of the bar I can see all of Paris.
I can see my whole life pass before my eyes,
And from a million miles away I should have seen it clearly,
But somehow now I see your face on every stranger
passing by.
Looks like such a big 'ol world but you're the only one
Who really means the world to me when it's all said and done.
Isn't it a funny thing to have to come so far
Just to see everything from the corner of a bar?
From the corner of the bar I whispered Viva La France.
Oh,listen to the heart of Paris. It's beating like a lullaby.
Somewhere in the stars I hear your voice
returning,singing,
"Where Is My Love" as I stare off into the nighttime sky.
Looks like such a big 'ol world but you're the only one
Who really means the world to me when it's all said and done.
Isn't it a funny thing to have to come so far
Just to see everything from the corner of the bar?
Oh, Sil vous plais garon
Je vous dire encore de vin.
'Cause I can see the whole world from the corner of this bar !

Visit Kimemie Rhodes page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.