I am a star
how heartily moving i read my lines straight faced in the mirror you are my camera
slouched over coffee
i'm faking artsy
we're playing dress-up now and the rain is washing out the snow we play the card games that we know i'll lay you down here your body's a smokestack my fellow acrobat you're a cold miner song you're a cold miner song tonight a cold miner's song tonight you're a cold miner's song tonight
