Since you've gone
I don't feel
So bon vivant
All alone
In a world
Where I don't belong
Oh, I can't break free of this feeling.

Gravity, gravity
Pulling me down to the ground
I can't believe I was there in your arms
But now I'm alone.

I wake up
Make a cup
And go back to bed
I can't move
Coz my body
Feels like lead
Every thought of you is so heavy.

Gravity, gravity
Pulling me down to the ground
I can't believe I was there in your arms
But now I'm alone
With this gravity, a tragedy
Even the time weighs on my mind
Every moment is pain, I cry out your name
It's so hard to move.

Can't concentrate with this weight
On my head, in my bed

I can't sleep, no relief
Shades of grey, night and day
Lock the door, shut the shade
Life's a bore, nothing more

Since you've gone, since you've gone, since you've gone.

If you call
I will act
So nonchalant
No I won't (no I won't)
Let on (let on)
That you're all I want (all I want).

Oh gravity, oh gravity
Pulling me down to the ground
I can't believe I was there in your arms
But now I'm alone
With this gravity, a tragedy
Even the time weighs on my mind
Every moment is pain
It's so hard to move.

With this gravity, oh gravity
Pulling me down to the ground
I can't believe I was there in your arms
But now I'm alone
With this gravity, a tragedy
Even the time weighs on my mind
Every moment is pain
It's so hard to move.

With this gravity (gravity)
(gravity, gravity).
