"And They Obey"

Visit "And They Obey" on MotoLyrics.com

Cross your fingers and hope for the best
Worship yourself, ignore the rest
Represent the way things really are
Drug addiction and crime aren't that far

Celebrity is all you believe
Hyped-up visions of all you crave

NAFTA ain't all liberty
Wealth - the price for equality
Germany wasn't that far away
...And They Obey

Born free; trapped by poverty
Loaded with chains, reduced to misery
Understand this is not a dream
Blonde hair, blue eyes - rarely seen

Equality is all we believe
An end to doubt and bigotry

NAFTA ain't all liberty
Wealth - the price for equality
Germany wasn't that far away
...And They Obey
