Symbolic wreck a crucifix, i've opened up to something new,
i'm born again but it's so stale, a lovely scenic view,
just another empty threat, a hoax gone wrong your mind still bleeds, you are the victim and the disease, we're so sick of you
we accuse you perfect vision, we accuse your flashing fictions,
why does truth get reduced to nothing, everything destroys itself.
Your fake idol a comatoes, a plastic mess on the t.v,
just like the cross,
just mor corrupt
what is morality?
just another useless plea block out the facts remove the smile, your feeling used destroy yourself, and then watch the denial,
we accuse you perfect vision,
we accuse your flashing fictions,
why does truth get reduced to nothing,
everything destroys itself.
we accuse you perfect vision,
we accuse your flashing fictions.
why does truth get reduced to nothing,
everything destroys itself.
we accuse your television,
we accuse your flashing fictions,
everything destroys it's self.
