This is the sound of a culture being drowned in it's own
Scum

Scum

This is the sound of kicking and screaming into the night

night

A parachute for the cliff that comes with your tomorrow
