Feel love in the underground
There's boys for rent, and comfort to be found
And everybody's so lonely, you can't help yourself
She's in love with the underworld
There's no romance and culture so profound
And everybody that knows me just can't help themselves
Forget you got a name, forget you ever came
No matter where you go, you always know
You're not the same
Yeah I made my money selling my teenage skin
We love you more than they will
Feel love in the underground
There's boys for rent, and comfort to be found
And everybody's so lonely, they can't help themselves
Tomorrow's wearing thin, so wear it with a grin
No matter what you do, they're tellin' you
You're not the same
Yeah I made my money selling my teenage skin
We love you more than they will
No innocence, no innocence
Yeah I made my money, selling my teenage skin
Feels like home, again, again, again
Yeah I made my money, selling my teenage skin
We love you more than they will, today, today
