(The King & The Thief)

Your metal and fire
How could you
Make a blade that cuts so
Deep?

And when the blaming
Fingers point
You'll say it
Wasn't the blade,
But the man who
Drove it through that
Heart

Like the surgeon
You will cut them open
Without a
Thought of humanity at all
I'll
Say you are brutal
And you don't Know what harm you could have Done
To your fellow man
He's not
Looking well

Your brother's here
Your brother's here
They'll hang him high
Close your eyes
How could this have become? X3
It won't be long
Call to Jesus.
Will he help to drag him down?
At all?
