I've become my own enemy

(And then they look into your eyes)

Not so big without disguise

You and me complicate things

Everyone, expression is useless

I've become my own enemy

And after all you see we're freaks

It's lack of love that made us weak

And after all we'll never be

We're diseased, we're diseased

You're a freak

You're a freak

You're a freak

We're diseased

You're a freak

You're a freak

You're a freak
